Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 12 November 2004.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1-17 is/are pending in the application.
- 4a) Of the above claim(s) 9-17 is/are withdrawn from consideration.
- 5) ☐ Claim(s) _____ is/are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite because the preamble recites "A method". It is unclear whether it is a method of cleaning the wafers. Additionally, claim 1 fails to recite a) applying the cleaning solution to the wafer or scrubbing the wafer with the rotating brushes. Claim 1 is further indefinite because it is unclear whether "a solution" is the same or different from the cleaning solution.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mikhaylichenko et al. (6733596).

In reference to claims 1-2, Mikhaylichenko et al. teach positioning the wafer between a pair of rotating brushes and providing a cleaning solution through the brushes as illustrated in Fig. 2A. In reference to claim 3, refer to col. 7, lines 18-20. In reference to claims 4-7, refer to Figs. 2A-2C, and 3A-3C. In reference to claim 8, refer to col. 1, lines 15-20.

Response to Arguments

The examiner thanks applicant for noting a typographical error concerning the omission of claims 14-17. These claims were to be included as part of Group II, directed to the apparatus, as presented in the last Office Action.

The rejection of the claims under 112, second paragraph is maintained. The claims are indefinite because it is unclear the method that is being claimed. The claims are directed to a method, however, it is unclear what type of method. The preamble reciting the phrase "A method" does not describe what type of method and therefore the limitations of just "A method" renders the claim indefinite.

The rejection of the claims as being anticipated by Farber et al. is withdrawn in view of the newly amended claims.

The rejection of the claims as being anticipated by Mikhaylichenko et al is maintained for the following reasons. Applicant argues that Mikhaylichenko fails to teach spraying a solution at any time when the brushes are in contact with the wafer. In col. 8, lines 25-35, Mikhaylichenko teaches rotating the brushes during the rinse operation. Fig. 3B teaches rotating the brushes as the wafer is being rinsed by rinse fluid from the nozzle, the teachings of which read on the claim limitations as recited in claim 1. Applicant further argues that Mikhaylichenko fails to teach an interface between the rotating brushes and the wafer surface. Fig. 3B clearly shows a interface between the rotating brushes and the wafer surface in which rinse fluid is applied to the wafer surface.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sharidan Carrillo whose telephone number is 571-272-1297. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 6:00a.m-2:30pm.
